

RESULT IN CALIFORNIA YET MATTER OF DOUBT

Both Sides Claiming Victory—Heavy
Vote Polled—70 per cent Cast
Up To 3 o'clock

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 8.—With an average of seventy per cent of the registered vote cast by 3 o'clock the indications point to the heaviest vote ever polled in California in a gubernatorial election. Both sides claim the election of governor. The Democrats claim substantial gains in Northern California, but both parties are chary of numerical estimates till late in the day.

Rain prevailed all day in the vicinity of San Francisco bay. The weather was generally fair throughout the state.

BELL MEN CLAIM JOHNSON'S PLURALITY LESS THAN 20,000

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 8.—The betting commissioners report that no straight Bell money is in sight, and much two to one on Johnson money goes begging. Bell adherents are offering even money that Johnson's plurality will be less than 20,000. Even money is bet that Bell will carry San Francisco by 6000.

Reports from scattering precincts at 10 o'clock indicate that less than twenty-five per cent of the registered vote has been cast. A light rain falling throughout the morning was probably responsible for the light vote. A heavy vote is reported in San Mateo county.

BOTH PARTIES JUBILANT OVER 10 O'CLOCK VOTE

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 8.—The heaviest vote in the history of Los Angeles has been registered throughout the residence districts. Voting is slower down town.

Bell headquarters was jubilant this morning. They claim all their forecasts for Bell's plurality will be exceeded. Johnson headquarters is equally confident.

Medium Early Vote

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 8.—The streets were damp as a result of a heavy fog when the early voters went to the polls. The weather bureau has predicted fair weather by noon. The early vote was medium with apparently much scratching.

At Republican county headquarters it was admitted this afternoon that Spellacy, the Democratic candidate for lieutenant governor, was running far ahead of the rest of the Democratic ticket in Los Angeles.

Fraudulent Voting Feared

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 8.—Charges of fraudulent voting in Los Angeles may follow the discovery by John Silver when he went to vote at Labor Temple polling place that some one had already voted his name. Silver hastened to police headquarters with the information.

CROWN CITY GOT VOTE

PASADENA, Nov. 8.—Fully twenty per cent of the vote was cast before 10 o'clock. Bell managers claim a better showing even than their forecast. The weather is fair.

SCRATCH BALLOTS IN

HEAVY EARLY VOTE
LONG BEACH, Nov. 8.—An unusually heavy early vote was polled, especially in the residence district precincts. There was evidently much ballot scratching.

JOHNSON MAY HAVE GOOD

MAJORITY IN SAN DIEGO
SAN DIEGO, Nov. 8.—A heavy vote was polled throughout the county. Republican leaders claim that San Diego has given Johnson a handsome majority.

The Democrats say the race here is close, declaring that Bell will win by a small plurality. Democratic leaders have not issued a claim regarding the congressional fight.

EVEN MONEY THAT JOHNSON

CARRIES KERN COUNTY
BAKERSFIELD, Nov. 8.—A heavy vote has been cast throughout Kern county. The weather is ideal. Both Johnson and Bell supporters claim a plurality. Smith, the Republican candidate for re-election to Congress from the eighth district, claims a slight lead in Kern county. There is even money that Johnson will carry Kern.

RIVERSIDE COMES UP TO

RACK WITH PARTY VOTE
RIVERSIDE, Nov. 8.—Forty per cent of the vote of Riverside was polled by noon. Johnson managers claim the county by 1200, and Smith, for Congress, is receiving the full party vote.

GILLETT LOST VOTE BY

CHANGING RESIDENCE
SACRAMENTO, Nov. 8.—Governor Gillett lost his vote by changing his residence to Eureka, where he will live when his term expires. He went to San Francisco to vote today, but found he had not lived there long enough, and returned to Sacramento this afternoon.

SACRAMENTO COUNTY

CLAIMED BY BOTH PARTIES
SACRAMENTO, Nov. 8.—Only one-third of the registered vote was polled at noon. The wet weather is responsible for the late vote. The Southern Pacific shops gave employees a half holiday this afternoon to permit them to vote. Chairman Haubm of the Republican county central committee declares that Johnson will carry the county by one thousand. Fox, Democratic chairman, claims the county for Bell.

SAN JOAQUIN COUNTY IS

CLAIMED BY REPUBLICANS
STOCKTON, Nov. 8.—There was a heavy, early vote. Republicans claim San Joaquin county by eight hundred plurality.

DEMOCRATS CLAIM TEHAMA

FOR BELL AND RAKER
RED BLUFF, Cal., Nov. 8.—The Democrats claim Tehama county by five hundred. They also claim one thousand plurality for Judge Raker, Democrat, over Congressman Englebright.

Republicans claim there will be an even break for governor.

RAINS CAUSED LIGHT VOTE

AND BOTH PARTIES REJOICE
PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 8.—Rains throughout the Willamette valley and along the coast are responsible for the light morning vote. Leaders of both parties declare the light vote is to their advantage. The betting is in favor of Bowerman, Republican gubernatorial candidate.

HUNDREDS STOOD IN RAIN

BEFORE POLLING PLACES
It was estimated at noon that forty per cent of the registered vote had been cast. Hundreds stood in the rain before the polling places. The voting this afternoon was brisk.

Little Activity in Seattle

SEATTLE, Nov. 8.—There was little activity at the polls this morning and a light vote is anticipated. The weather is threatening.

RAIN INTERFERES WITH

VOTING IN MONTANA
BUTTE, Mont., Nov. 8.—Rain beginning at 6 o'clock this morning turned to snow at noon. It is believed the vote will be light. The Republicans claim the election of their congressman by three thousand.

CRIPPEN TO HANG

ON NOVEMBER 23

LONDON, Nov. 8.—It has been officially announced that Dr. Hawley H. Crippen, convicted and sentenced to death for the murder of his wife, Belle Elmore, would not be executed today as originally arranged for the reason that the law provides that two weeks must elapse between the dismissal of an appeal and the carrying out of the sentence.

November 23 has been fixed upon as the date of the execution. Meantime, Solicitor Newton, Crippen's counsel, is drafting a petition for a reprieve.

Weather Forecast

Cloudy tonight and Wednesday; light westerly winds.

STRIKE DECISION WAS POSTPONED

Election Caused Calling of General Strike to Wait Till Tomorrow

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—On account of election, the proposed vote to call a general teamsters strike in New York has been postponed until tomorrow. Efforts are being made to secure a conference between the strike leaders and the express company officials but it is not believed the latter will consent.

FEDERAL SIGNS DID

NOT PROTECT WAGONS
NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Interstate commerce signs on express wagons failed to protect them yesterday from attacks by strikers and their sympathizers, and tonight the companies stated that they were in possession of facts upon which they could appeal to the Federal government for either injunctions or troops. A half dozen wagons were molested yesterday, all of which bore the sign, "This wagon carries interstate commerce traffic only," and in two cases, at least, there was damage, not only to the property but to the persons of drivers and helpers.

Only the wagons bearing the interstate commerce signs were attacked, the strikers believing it all to be a big bluff.

SOLE VOTER OF SAN DIEGO

PRECINCT WAS REPUBLICAN
SAN DIEGO, Nov. 8.—Robert Waters, the sole voter of North Island precinct, San Diego county, voted the straight Republican ticket at 7:55 this morning. He then took the ballot box to San Diego and deposited it with the county clerk. Hiram W. Johnson received the honor of the lead on the first return.

BANDITS ROBBED BANK—

ESCAPED AFTER BATTLE
BEATTIE, Kas., Nov. 8.—Five bandits robbed the vault of the Beattie State Bank. They escaped after a running battle with the citizens, in which fifty shots were fired. One robber was wounded.

FLOAT FLAG FOR BIG CONVENTION

State Sunday School Meeting Should be Greeted by Old Glory

At the last meeting of the Merchants and Manufacturers' Association, a resolution was passed requesting as many business houses and homes as would to decorate their places with the American flag, during the days the State Sunday School convention is in session. This will be a uniform trimming of the city and will also be appropriate. Our guests are doing a work that is in support of citizenship and the flag. The committee in charge of the entertainment of the visitors of this week desire a hearty co-operation in this trimming of the city, as it will bespeak a hearty welcome and cordial hospitality.

Let everybody float a flag this week and extend a welcome to Santa Ana.

MARRIED WOMEN LIKELY

TO LOSE GOVERNMENT JOBS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—There is much fear and trembling among the married women who hold down government jobs, for if a recommendation already made to the heads of the various departments in Washington is favorably acted on, all women who have husbands able and willing to support them will be ousted and women without husbands and without jobs will be given the places.

MACHINERY INSTALLED

CORONA, Nov. 8.—The Young Construction Company of Los Angeles, through their superintendent, R. L. Taylor, is installing three big No. 5 gyratory crushers and one jaw crusher at their porphyry quarry. Five hundred tons of crushed rock a day will be the output of the new crushers.

SAINZ JAILED MACIAS IN RURALES CLUTCH

Men Who Broke Jail Here Oct
16, Caught Across the Mexican Border

DESPERADO'S PLAN

WAS TO SMUGGLE
Blue-eyed Murderer Asleep in Camp Near Tecate Taken
by Surprise

Rosario Sainz is in jail at Ensenada. Alejo Macias is in the hands of the rurales at Tecate.

These two men—Sainz a murderer, smuggler and all-around desperado, and Macias, ex-convict, horse-thief and forger—escaped from the Orange county jail on Oct. 16 three weeks ago last Sunday, in one of the most sensational jail-breaks recorded in years. They locked Sheriff Lacy in jail, and arming themselves with rifles from the jail office, escaped to the orchards in the northeast part of the city, where they successfully hid themselves till dark.

For a week past officers have had the lines drawn closely about the two fugitives. Sainz, reckless to a high degree, went to his old stamping grounds in Baja California, and at the time of his capture had a band of Chinese together ready to be guided by him across the line, through San Diego and Orange counties to Los Angeles.

Sheriff Lacy received a telephone message at 11 o'clock last night from Chief Keno Wilson of San Diego, telling him that Sainz was under lock and key and that Macias was ready to be turned over to the California police.

Sainz was in jail here on a charge of murdering Jose Machado on the Hellman mesa near Sunset Beach in September, 1909. After killing Machado, Sainz escaped to Mexico, and twice returned through this county guiding contraband Chinese. He was arrested at Ensenada after a drunken brawl, and was turned over to this state by extradition.

Macias served time from Los Angeles county for horse-stealing. He was in jail here charged with forging a $30 check.

Reckless Sainz
Sainz's act in returning to Ensenada and again entering into the smuggling of Chinese, daring to come through this county where every officer was keen to get him, is in keeping with the foolhardy recklessness that has characterized his career for the last twelve or thirteen years, during which time he has been outlawed at times on both sides of the border. Officers here had hardly conceived that Sainz would go back to Baja California, but were of the opinion that he would hit for the Mexican line far to the east.

On Oct. 16 after Sheriff Lacy had opened the door of the felony ward that Miss Christine Kerl, who had been holding services there, might leave, Sainz and Macias made their break for liberty. Lacy held the door against them until Miss Kerl had locked the outer jail door. Sainz then broke through, while Lacy and Macias struggled. Sainz ordered Miss Kerl to open the outer door, and, fear-

ELECTION RETURNS

By the Register Tonight

The Register will receive election returns until midnight tonight, and will announce them by bulletin, megaphone and telephone.

ENGINEERS PLAN STRIKE ON 60 ROADS

Six Weeks Conference Ends—Regret Felt by Men of the Throttle

CHICAGO, Nov. 8.—Negotiations terminated yesterday in the wage conference between representatives of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and members of the conference committees of general managers which has been in session for six weeks, and as a result a strike ballot will be taken on sixty western roads in the next month.

Grand Chief Warren S. Stone, of the Brotherhood, stated last night that he believed the companies were flaunting the red flag in the faces of their best friends.

"The engineer," he said, "has stuck to the road through thick and thin. Their work has been doubled and their salary has not been increased. There has never been a general strike but it looks very probable. It grieves me to be forced to go among the men and ask for their ballot on a strike. I thought sure we were coming to an agreement, and I conceded much more than I believe the men would be satisfied with."

KNUD RASMUSSEN

IS INCREDULOUS
Says Neither Cook Nor Peary
Has "Shadow of Truth" in Claim of Pole Discovery

COPENHAGEN, Nov. 8.—Neither Cook nor Peary has a shadow of truth in his claims. No living explorer nor Eskimo has been within 100 miles of the North Pole.

According to missionaries returning from Greenland, the foregoing is the conclusion reached by Knud Rasmussen. These missionaries, who are believed to be thoroughly reliable, also say that Rasmussen cross-examined the two Eskimos, Ahwelah and Etuk-shuk, upon whose testimony Cook relied for corroboration of his claim that he reached the pole, and got from them nothing to substantiate the claim made by the American.

FALCON ON FIRE PULLING FOR PORT

Distress Wireless Signal Sends Tugs From Astoria to Aid of Steamer

ASTORIA, Ore., Nov. 8.—Tugs started at daylight to help the steamer "Falcon," which is trying to make port with a fire in her hold. A distress wireless signal was picked up at midnight.

The "Falcon's" operator said the fire was under control and she would probably be able to make port, but assistance would be gladly received.

BAPTIST ASSOCIATION

TO MEET AT REDLANDS

REDLANDS, Nov. 8.—The annual meeting of the Baptists of the Santa Ana Valley Association, taking in most of Southern California outside of Los Angeles county, will be held at the Redlands church November 15 to 17. The program is being made out and the leading workers of the church will have a part.

The meeting is held in Redlands this year in order that the delegates may have opportunity to inspect the new Baptist university, which has been established here.

Fate of a Speeder

Gunner—Bigwood, the millionaire, started off for a banquet, and was arrested for speeding.

Guyer—Then he wasn't wined and toasted.

Gunner—No; instead he was fined and roasted.

Out of the Wet

"I intend," the poet wrote, "to continue to storm the citadel of your affections."

"Storm away," she wrote back, "but I've just succeeded in getting in out of the wet by becoming engaged to a dear old man who has $9,000,000."

DEMOCRATS MAKE GAINS IN MANY EASTERN STATES

Stimson Ahead In Country Districts of
New York—Harmon Leads In Ohio—Results Undecided

MUSKOGEE, Okla., Nov. 8.—When the white election officers from Fussy Creek precinct, in Wagoner county, attempted to prevent the negroes from voting, the blacks, who outnumbered them, drove the whites from the election booths and took possession. Two autos carrying fifteen armed men have started for Fussy Creek from Coweta, the nearest settlement. A battle is expected when they arrive, as the negroes are armed.

Throughout the state the negroes are angry because of the "grandfather" clause, placing property qualifications on them, and disenfranchising many. General trouble is feared. Many whites are openly carrying weapons. In several precincts, police patrols are guarding the polls.

TROOPS ORDERED OUT AS

NEGROES ARE UNRULY
OKLAHOMA CITY, Nov. 8.—Governor Haskell has ordered out troops, Company M of the state militia, being under arms for a hasty trip to Guthrie, where the negroes are gathering in unruly crowds at the polling places. Rioting is feared.

"Nothing as yet warrants sending the troops to Guthrie," Governor Haskell said, "but I believe it is better to be on the safe side. I am informed the negroes there are threatening because of their disenfranchisement. But so long as they are quiet I will not send the troops there."

HALF OF ALBANY'S VOTE

WAS IN AT 11 O'CLOCK
ALBANY, Nov. 8.—Although a heavy snow is falling, half of Albany's votes were cast before 11 o'clock. Much ballot scratching was indicated by the length of time the voters remained in the booths.

DEMOCRATIC DISTRICT

INCREASES MAJORITY
BOSTON, Nov. 8.—The first election returns from Avon, for governor, shows Foss, Democrat, 201, Draper, Republican, 104. The same district at the last election gave a Democratic plurality of 53.

The Democratic leaders are freely claiming the election of Foss, Democrat, for governor, over Draper, Republican. The returns so far bear out their claims.

Heavy Early Vote in Cleveland
CLEVELAND, O., Nov. 8.—Although bitter weather prevails, forty per cent of the vote was cast within four hours after the opening of the polls.

TAFT AND HARMON

VOTED AT EARLY HOUR
CINCINNATI, Nov. 8.—President Taft arrived at 10 o'clock, and immediately voted. He remained in the booth but a few seconds, evidently not scratching his ticket. Governor Harmon voted early.

The Cincinnati Times-Star, owned by Charles Taft, the president's brother, admits that Harmon will carry Hamilton county by a big plurality. The president cast ballot No. 15, in precinct H, ward two. He remained in the booth three and one-half minutes. When he emerged the clerk asked his name. "William H. Taft," he responded.

Dix Favorite at 6 to 5

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Despite the first snow-fall of the season, the voters went to the polls early, with the heaviest vote in New York's history predicted. John A. Dix is a six to five favorite with Wall street bettors, with even money on his plurality of fifty thousand.

Colonel Roosevelt claims Stimson will have a victory of twenty-five thousand.

HARMON WILL CARRY CUYA-

HOGA COUNTY BY 10,000
CLEVELAND, Nov. 8.—Recorder Maschke, the Republican leader, this afternoon conceded that Governor Harmon, Democrat, would carry Cuyahoga county by ten thousand.

2 SOCIALISTS MAY GO TO

CONGRESS FROM WISCONSIN
MILWAUKEE, Nov. 8.—Five hours

after the polls opened the Democrats repeated their claim that they will elect E. M. J. Schmitz as governor. The early voting indicated that the Socialists' claim that they would elect two congressmen would be fulfilled.

Scratching Ballots

DES MOINES, Nov. 8.—There was much ballot scratching, according to the poll watchers here. The weather throughout the state is good. Both parties are claiming victory.

Heavy Early Vote

CHICAGO, Nov. 8.—A heavy early vote with perfect weather throughout Illinois.

TOPEKA, Kas., Nov. 8.—Early voting was light, with apparently little interest. The weather is perfect.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Nov. 8.—Early voting was heavy, despite threatening weather. Long lines awaited the opening of the polls.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 8.—Fair weather prevails, and indications point to a heavy vote.

Republican Victory Claimed

OMAHA, Nov. 8.—The heaviest vote in the history of Nebraska was polled today. The forecasts this afternoon indicate a Republican victory, although it is doubtful if the Republicans will be strong enough in the legislature to re-elect Senator Burkett.

OMAHA, Neb., Nov. 8.—The biggest vote in the history of Omaha was expected early this morning. The prohibition question is overshadowing all other issues. Excellent weather prevails.

MASSACHUSETTS TOWNS

GIVE DEMOCRATIC GAINS

HOLBROOK, Mass., Nov. 8.—Holbrook complete returns gave Draper, Republican candidate for Governor, 214; Foss, Democrat, 169. Democratic gain 20.

NEW BEDFORD, with four precincts give Foss, Democrat, 300 plurality. Democratic gain 220.

Roosevelt Voted in Quick Order

OYSTER BAY, Nov. 8.—Col. Roosevelt and his son Kermit and all the employees of the Roosevelt establishment voted early. Roosevelt consumed thirty seconds in voting, but Kermit was longer.

WOMEN ACTIVE AT

COLORADO POLLS

DENVER, Nov. 8.—The women are most active at the polls. The weather is ideal. It is predicted ninety per cent of the registered vote will be polled by 3 o'clock.

STUBBS WILL HAVE

REDUCED MAJORITY

TOPEKA, Kans., Nov. 8.—General ticket scratching is taken as an indication of a landslide for George H. Hodges, the Democratic candidate for governor. Indications are that Governor Stubbs' plurality, even if re-elected, will be greatly reduced.

Foss Leads in New Bedford

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., Nov. 8.—Indications late this afternoon are that Foss, Democrat, will carry New Bedford by 8,000.

Stimson Leads in Schenectady

SCHENECTADY, N. Y., Nov. 8.—Indications are that Stimson, the Republican candidate for governor, has carried Schenectady city and county by 600 to 800. Scholarly county reports indicate a Dix majority of 500.

Montgomery county will probably be for Stimson by a small plurality. A slight Republican loss has been sustained in each county.

DEMOCRATIC GOVERNOR

CLAIMED FOR WYOMING

CHEYENNE, Nov. 8.—The heaviest vote ever cast in Wyoming was polled today. The weather was perfect. The Democrats claim the gubernatorial election of John M. Carey, and also claim that the Republican legislative majority is reduced.

—Election returns will be received at Elks Hall, Tuesday night. Regular meeting. Supper following.

COMMITTEE.

—Electric horse clipping, $1.50 at Garden Grove Livery.

TWENTY-EIGHT CARS IN WEEK

Tomato Harvest is at Its Best
—Walnuts Really All Gone
—Boy Arrested

FULLERTON, Nov. 7.—Shipments from the Fullerton district during the past week included twenty-eight cars of tomatoes, seven cars of walnuts, three cars of hay, two of oranges and one of casabas. The shippers were the following: California Vegetable Union, eighteen cars tomatoes; Pacific Vegetable Union, seven cars tomatoes; J. B. Inderreiden, six cars walnuts; M. M. Cobb, three cars tomatoes; C. C. Chapman, two cars oranges; Golden Belt Fruit Company, one car walnuts; C. C. Chapman, one car casabas; Joe Ytery, three cars hay. The tomato harvest is at its best now and there will be heavy shipments from this district for the next month. The bulk of the walnuts have been handled from this locality, though there will be a few more carloads to go forward within the next week or ten days.

The grocery firm of McGimpsey & Gage made an assignment to the Wholesale Board of Trade of Los Angeles Saturday night. S. D. Parker, adjuster of the Los Angeles organization, is now taking an inventory of the stock and expects to sell the place as a whole. He estimates that the assets will amount to $3500 with liabilities of $4500.

Chris Paulsen, Jr., aged eighteen years, was taken to Santa Ana by Marshal Stone to have a hearing before the Juvenile Court on the charge of having stolen two bicycles. The wheels belonging to John Sparks and John Michaels disappeared and one was sold by young Paulsen to Charles Stone and the other was found in his possession when he was arrested.

WHAT CURES ECZEMA?

—We have had so many inquiries lately regarding Eczema and other skin diseases, that we are glad to make our answer public. After careful investigation we have found that a simple wash of Oil of Wintergreen, as compounded in D. D. D., can be relied upon. We would not make this statement to our patrons, friends and neighbors unless we were sure of it—and although there are many so-called Eczema remedies sold, we ourselves unhesitatingly recommend D. D. D. Prescription.

Because—We know that it gives instant relief to that torturing itch. Because D. D. D. starts the cure at the foundation of the trouble.

Because—it cleanses, soothes and heals the skin.

Because—it enables Nature to repair the ravages of disease.

CHANTECLER'S CROWS

WERE WORTH $642,000

PARIS, Nov. 8.—At last, after several extensions of its run "Chantecler" gave its final "cockadoodledoo" on the stage of the Martin last week. The total box office receipts produced by the play at 752 performances, both in Paris and the French provinces, is $642,000.

A Most Valuable Agent.

The glycerine employed in Dr. Pierce's medicines greatly enhances the medicinal properties which it extracts from native medicinal roots and holds in solution much better than alcohol would. It also possesses medicinal properties of its own, being a valuable demulcent, nutritive, antiseptic and antiferment. It adds greatly to the efficacy of the Black Cherry-bark, Bloodroot, Golden Seal root, Stone root and Queen's root, contained in "Golden Medical Discovery" in subduing chronic, or lingering coughs, bronchitis, throat and lung affections, for all of which these agents are recommended by standard medical authorities.

In all cases where there is a wasting away of flesh, loss of appetite, with weak stomach, as in the early stages of consumption, there can be no doubt that glycerine acts as a valuable nutritive and aids the Golden Seal root, Stone root, Queen's root and Black Cherry-bark in promoting digestion and building up the flesh and strength, controlling the cough and bringing about a healthy condition of the whole system. Of course, it must not be expected to work miracles. It will not cure consumption except in its earlier stages. It will cure very severe, obstinate, chronic coughs, bronchitis and pulmonary troubles, and chronic sore throat with hoarseness. In acute croup it is not so effective. It is in the lingering hang-on coughs, or those of long standing, even when accompanied by bleeding from lungs, that it has performed its most marvelous cures.

Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Med. College, Chicago, says of glycerine: "In dyspepsia it serves an excellent purpose. Holding a fixed quantity of the peroxide of hydrogen in solution, it is one of the best manufactured products of the present time in its action upon weakened, disordered stomachs, especially if there is ulceration or catarrhal gastritis (catarrhal inflammation of stomach). It is a most efficient preparation. Glycerine will relieve many cases of prostatic (heartburn) and excessive gastric (stomach) acidity."

"Golden Medical Discovery" enriches and purifies the blood curing blotches, pimples, eruptions, scrofulous swellings and old sores, or ulcers.

Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., for free booklet telling all about the nature and medicinal uses of this wonderful medicine. There is no alcohol in it.

THINKS TICK IS DECREASED

Veterinarian Says Pest Now Confined to Four Counties of the State

Los Angeles Times: As a result of the continuous warfare that has been waged during the past four years by the Federal department heads and bureaus against the greatest pest known to the cattle world—the tick—comparatively few of the dangerous insects remain. During that time the infested districts of California have been confined to four counties, similar progress is reported in Texas, Arizona and New Mexico.

Principally to the efforts of William M. MacKellar, veterinarian and head of the local branch of the United States Animal Industry Bureau can the virtual disappearance of the pest within the borders of California be accredited. Dr. Mac Kellar has fought the insect incursion with the greatest vigor. Of course the united aid of stock raisers, and the bureau maintained by the state for the protection of the animal industry helped. The entire fight, however, centered about and was directed by Dr. Mac Kellar.

According to figures compiled by Dr. Mac Kellar, the tick infested districts of California have been reduced within a period of four years from thirteen counties to four. During that time thousands of cattle have been cured, and hundreds of thousands of dollars saved the stockmen. The counties in which some ticks remain are San Luis Obispo, Santa Barbara, Orange and San Diego. Los Angeles county, which four years ago had thousands of head of cattle suffering from the tick fever, at the last examination had a clean sheet.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC RAILWAY IS NOW USING TELEPHONES FOR DISPATCHING TRAINS

Supplanting the telegraph, which was considered the standard for handling train movements for a great many years, the Southern Pacific has joined the ranks of railroads now using the telephone for dispatching trains. Telephonic apparatus is now in operation over the Shasta division, with a total of 291 miles of circuits. Copper wire of extreme weight and especially drawn for service in a mountainous region is being used.

The telephone circuit during sixteen hours out of twenty-four is cut into two sections, and during the third "trick" the entire circuit is operated by one dispatcher. This circuit covers a 206 mile section of the main line between Ashland, Oregon, and Red Bluff, California, and a branch of 95 miles from Weed, California, to Klamath Falls, Oregon. The dispatcher is located at Dunsuir, California, which is 98 miles from Red Bluff, the southern terminal of this circuit. There are twenty-five stations of the entire circuit, twelve being located between Dunsuir and Red Bluff, nine between Dunsuir and Ashland and four between Weed and Klamath Falls.

The apparatus for this dispatching system has been furnished by the Western Electric Company, which has made more than 90 per cent. of the train dispatching telephones now in use in the United States. Passenger and freight trains on the Southern Pacific are equipped with portable telephone sets, enabling train men to get in touch with the dispatcher from any point along the road.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio.

Sold by druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

HIRED APPLAUSE.

The Great Rachel Made the Claque Earn Its Money.

Speaking of applause in theaters, a theatrical man relates the following concerning the great actress Rachel:

"It seems that upon a certain opening night Rachel received enthusiastic applause, but on the second night it was so noticeably slim that the actress felt deeply grieved and bitterly complained that the claque was not doing its duty. The leader of the hired 'applause makers' on hearing of her displeasure wrote her a letter in which he endeavored to excuse himself from any blame.

"Mademoiselle—I cannot remain under the obloquy of a reproach from such lips as yours," he began. "The following is an authentic statement of what really took place: At the first representation I led the attack in person not less than thirty-three times. We had three acclamations, four hilarities, two thrilling movements, four renewals of applause and two indefinite explosions. In fact, to such an extent did we carry our applause that the occupants of the stalls were scandalized and cried out a la porte!"

"My men were positively exhausted with fatigue and even intimidated to me that they could not again go through such an evening. Seeing such to be the case, I applied for the manuscript, and after having profoundly studied the piece I was obliged to make up my mind for the second representation to certain curtailments in the service of my men."

"The writer thus goes on at some length to assure the actress he will try to make future amends and requests her to believe in his profound admiration."—Exchange.

TALKING IN FIGURES.

Significance of Certain Numbers in the Telegraphers' Code.

"In the telegraphers' code numbers have special significance of which the general public is not aware," remarked a veteran key night the other day. "Most everybody knows that 30 means 'good night,' or the end of a story, but few outside the profession know that 31 is also a code sign. Rail road operators, however, know that this call is a signal to the operator at the other end to come back and repeat train signals to the sending operator. It also has another meaning. 'Train order to be signed by conductor and engine driver.' Nineteen, on the other hand, means that the train order is not to be signed by conductor or engine driver. Twenty-four has also the latter significance on some roads.

"Five is simply an interrogation point and in the vernacular could be translated 'Anything doing?' Thirteen signifies 'Do you understand?' Twenty-five means 'busy,' but nobody seems to know how it came to have that significance unless perhaps it means that the operator is still in the midst of his work, being some distance away from 30.

"Seventy-three means 'best regards,' and newspaper men and operators employ this expression constantly. Of course 23 has come to mean in this numerical language just what it does in ordinary parlance, 'skiddoo,' 'vamoose' or 'butt out' or any of the thousand and one other equivalents."—New York Herald.

The Governor's Quick Wit.

While talking to a former governor of Illinois, who was noted for the quickness of his wit, an English tourist spoke with special fervor of a sight he had seen in another state.

"I attended a Sunday service for the inmates of the state prison," he said, "and I learned that of the 206 persons now confined there all but twelve voluntarily attend religious services held in the prison chapel twice each Sunday."

"Most extraordinary," said the governor musingly. "I am sorry to say it is not so with us. But then," he added soberly, "in Illinois, you see, most of the respectable people do not come to prison."—Lippincott's.

Sign Language.

Brown and Jones were having their usual stroll and had just had a few minutes' conversation with Robinson, who was accompanied by his wife. After they had gone on some little distance Brown said to Jones:

"Did you notice that Mrs. Robinson never said a word?"

"Oh, yes," said Jones. "You see, she's deaf and dumb."

"Lucky chap is Robinson. But I suppose she can talk with her fingers?" asked Brown.

"I think so," replied Jones, "for Robinson hasn't a dozen hairs left on his head."

Settlement Work.

"Came into a fortune, didn't he?" "Yes, a big one." "What's he doin' these days?" "He has become interested in settlement work."

"Well, that ought to keep him occupied for awhile; he owed everybody."—Houston Post.

"The Fortune Hunter"

One of the brightest, cleanest and most entertaining comedies that will come to Los Angeles this season is "The Fortune Hunter," which will play at the Mason Opera House, Los Angeles, for the weeks commencing Nov. 14 and Nov. 21, with the exception of Sunday. There will be the usual Saturday matinees, and special Wednesday matinees, with prices running 50 cents to $1.00, and an extra matinee the second week on Thursday, Thanksgiving Day. It abounds with comedy of the Ade type mingled with elements of pathos and heart interest which make the audiences laugh, while tears with difficulty are restrained. After four acts of Winchell Smith's American play, one leaves the theater feeling that it was good to have been there.

One can understand why "The Fortune Hunter" scored such a success in New York and Chicago. There is a plot that appeals to the American heart. It starts right, carries one on the crest of the wave through the development in the second and third acts, and winds up in a pouring stage shower which drenches the hero and heroine, happy in their love at last, while the father of the girl rescues them from their absorption with a prosaic umbrella.

The cast that presents the Smith production is strong and well balanced. There are no checked spots, for the minor parts are well filled and evoke just as many laughs as the principal ones. Although Fred Niblo as Nathaniel Duncan, and Alma Belwin, as Betty Graham, have the big roles, the character part of Frank Bacon as Sam Graham, the visionary, absent-minded druggist-inventor, is one to which he imparts infinite charm. It has not the swing and go of the others. The impressiveness is due to the truly artistic conception and rendition of Mr. Bacon, and it is the kind that lingers in the mind when more tumultuous characters are forgotten. Lovers of really good acting will regale themselves in following the lines, the gentle dignity, the unaffected goodness of heart, and unbounded faith in humanity which the "man who never made a success" portrays. He makes it a classic.

Others who figure prominently in the cast are Phil Bishop as Tracy Tanner, who has an awful time getting engaged; Francis Conlan, the deputy sheriff; Lento Fullwell as Josie Lockwood, the banker's daughter; Regina Connolly, Edward Saxton, Avon Breyer, Frank Buoman and Tom Heffron.

AULD LANG SYNE CLUB AT MEETING

GARDEN GROVE, Nov. 7.—The Auld Lang Syne Club, including the honorary members, were highly entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Chaffee on Monday evening, Oct. 31.

The evening was spent in playing games and reminding each other of the foolish pranks they did when going to school. After a good social time, refreshments were served consisting of walnuts, raisins and apples served in pumpkins, and then good generous pieces of pumpkin pie which makes one's mouth water to even look upon at this time of year, also coffee and doughnuts.

The rooms were decorated with black cats and witches suitable to the occasion. The only thing that marred the pleasure of the evening was the absence of the real witch, who was detained at home on account of illness, and the guests were left in doubt as to what the future has in store for them.

The party consisted of Messrs. and Mesdames Will Newsom, Harvey Newsom, Will Schnitzer, John Mitchell, Fred Harrison, Archie Moody, Walter Harper, and Miss Bertha Robinson and Mrs. Will Finn of Garden Grove; Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Johnson, Rivera; Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Hill, Long Beach; Miss Percy Head and Mrs. Mabel Lowell, Santa Ana.

The next meeting will be held in the afternoon of Dec. 1, with Mrs. W. B. Harper of Garden Grove.

YOUR STOMACH TROUBLE GOES

No Indigestion, Gas Heartburn or Dyspepsia Five Minutes Later

—There would not be a case of indigestion here if readers who are subject to stomach trouble knew the tremendous anti-ferment and digestive virtue contained in Diapiesin. This harmless preparation will digest a heavy meal without the slightest fuss or discomfort, and relieve the sorest, acid stomach in five minutes, besides overcoming all foul, nauseous odors from the breath.

Ask your pharmacist to show you the formula, plainly printed on each 50-cent case of Pape's Diapiesin, then you will readily understand why this promptly cures indigestion and removes such symptoms as heartburn, a feeling like a lump of lead in the stomach, belching of gas and eructations of undigested food, water brash, nausea, headache, biliousness and many other bad symptoms; and, besides, you will not need laxatives to keep your stomach, liver and intestines clean and fresh.

If your stomach is sour and full of gas, or your food doesn't digest, and your meals don't seem to fit, why not get a 50-cent case from your druggist and make life worth living? Absolute relief from stomach misery and perfect digestion of anything you eat is sure to follow five minutes after, and besides, one case is sufficient to cure a whole family of such trouble.

Surely, a harmless, inexpensive preparation like Diapiesin, which will always, either at daytime or during night, relieve your stomach misery and digest your meals, is about as handy and valuable a thing as you could have in the house.

GOLD LEAF.

The Many Stages In the Process of Its Manufacture.

Gold leaf, of which such large quantities are used by picture frame makers as well as by other trades, is made as follows:

An alloy of the desired color having been formed, the gold is melted in a crucible at a temperature well above the fusion point. It is then cast into an ingot and flattened by rolling between a pair of powerful steel rollers into a ribbon one and a half inches wide and ten feet in length to the ounce.

After being flattened it is annealed and cut in pieces of about six and a half grains each and placed between the leaves of a "cutch," which is about half an inch thick and three and a half inches square, containing about 180 leaves of tough paper manufactured for the purpose. This is beaten on for about twenty minutes with a seventeen pound hammer, by which the gold is spread to the size of the cutch. Each leaf is then taken out and cut in four pieces.

These are put between the leaves of a "shoder" four and a half inches square and three-quarters of an inch thick, containing about 720 skins which have been worn out in the "mold" or finishing process, described later. The shoder requires about two hours' beating with a nine pound hammer. Each leaf is again cut in four pieces and placed between the leaves of a mold composed of about 950 of the finest gold beaters' skins five inches square and three-quarters of an inch thick, the contents of one shoder filling three molds.

The material has now reached the last and most difficult stage of the process. During the first hour the hammer is allowed to fall principally on the center of the mold. This causes gaping cracks upon the edges of the leaves, the sides of which rapidly coalesce without leaving any trace of the union after being beaten upon. At the second hour, when the gold is about the one hundred and fifty thousandth part of an inch in thickness, it for the first time permits the transmission of light. If the gold is pure or but slightly alloyed green rays pass through; when highly alloyed with silver violet rays appear.

As a rule about four hours' beating with a seven pound hammer is required. A single ounce of gold will at this stage trim to about 1,300 leaves three and one-quarter inches square. The finished leaves are taken out of the mold and the rough edges trimmed off by slips of rattan fixed in parallel grooves of an instrument called a wagon, the leaf being laid upon a leather cushion for that purpose.

The leaves are placed in "books" capable of holding twenty-five leaves each, which have been rubbed over with red ochre to prevent the gold from clinging to the paper. The fine gold beaters' skin is the coat of the caecum or blind gut of the ox specially prepared.—Canadian Painter and Decorator.

A Ruskin Thought.

To be content in utter darkness and ignorance is indeed unmanly, and therefore we think that to love and find knowledge must be always right. Yet wherever pride has any share in the work even knowledge and light may be ill pursued. Knowledge is good, and light is good, yet man perished in seeking knowledge, and the moths perish in seeking light, and if we who are crushed before the moth will not accept such mystery as is needful to us we shall perish in like manner. None but the proud will mourn over this, for we may always know more, if we choose, by working on, but the pleasure is, I think, to humble people, in knowing that the journey is endless, the treasure inexhaustible.—Ruskin.

Age of Criminal Responsibility.

In England the law looks upon every one over the age of seven as a responsible being, and every child beyond that age can be prosecuted as a criminal. The same age is accepted in Russia and Portugal. In France and Belgium the age is eight, in Italy and Spain it is nine. Norway, Greece, Austria, Denmark and Holland decline to prosecute a child under ten, and this is the rule also in some of the Swiss cantons. In Germany the limit of responsibility is fixed at twelve.

Timely Advice.

It was during a performance of "Faust" in a provincial town. After the duel Martha, who rushed in at the head of the crowd, raised Valentin's head and held him in her arms during the first part of the scene and exclaimed in evident alarm, "Oh, what shall I do?"

For a moment there was a death-like stillness in the house, when a voice from the gallery suddenly called out, "Unbutton his waist."

THE HIGH COST OF LIVING

In his speech at Atlantic, Iowa, Secretary Wilson discussed the high cost of living. He said that for one thing the homestead law makes it possible for the homesteader to drive the ranchman away and thus decrease the meat supply. He illustrated the increased cost by saying:

"City people live in flats with no cellars. The wife calls up the butcher and orders meat for each meal. He must deliver it. This means extra expense to the retailer and he raises the price. I have found that the retailer of meats gets an average of 33 per cent profit. Sometimes it is as high as 65 per cent. Don't blame the farmer for this. Under present conditions twenty-five men are doing the work in trade that one man can do. The other twenty-four should be producers."

"You blame it to the tariff. Let the bars down and see what happens. Do you want to put the American farmer on a plane with the Canadian farmer, the Mexican farmer, the Argentine farmer or the Australian farmer? Is that right? If you do, elect a Democratic congress and let down the bars."

Let down the bars and you will kill the rice industry of this country; you will kill the sugar beet industry of the nation. Both are on the protected list and they were never so cheap, and we are producing all that we need. If you let in the cheap rice and sugar of Europe, what will happen?"

In the same address Secretary Wilson touched on the conservation problem by saying that if anyone wanted to know the truth about conservation he should read President Taft's St. Paul speech.

OUR ILLOGICAL JURY LAW

Commenting on the message of Governor Noel of Mississippi urging the legislature to give three-fourths of the jury power to find a verdict, the Journal of Criminal Law says:

"The governor might have added that every country in Europe where the jury system prevails, and also in Scotland, either a majority or two-thirds of the jury may return a verdict in criminal cases, and in England, where the unanimity rule is retained, the judge plays such an important part in the trial that the worst evils of the jury system are avoided. He might also have added that in many cases in this country where a unanimous verdict is required the unanimity is apparent rather than real, and that verdicts in consequence represent unsatisfactory compromises. Everyone is familiar with cases in which a single juror has set at naught the opinions of the other eleven; has by sheer obstinacy and physical endurance compelled his associates to agree to verdicts which did not represent their real convictions, or driven them to disagreements, in either case defeating justice. The unanimity rule, in our opinion, gives too much power to one man. It virtually places the enforcement of the criminal law in the hands of a single individual and one, too, who is often selected with little regard to his qualifications for so important a trust. In many states the constitution permits majority verdicts in cases involving misdemeanors and in a few (Louisiana and Montana, for example) two-thirds of the jury may return verdicts in all cases not amounting to felony."

The California legislature will be asked to present an amendment to the constitution empowering three-fourths of the jury to find a verdict in criminal, as it now does in civil cases.

ful that Lacy would be injured, she quickly complied.

The desperadoes locked the sheriff and the woman in the ward, and then took two rifles and a revolver from the jail office.

Though posses were soon out hunting for the two fugitives, no trace of them was found. They disappeared in the thick orchards in the vicinity of Seventeenth and C streets.

Sheriff Lacy offered a reward of $100 for the capture of either man. That reward put the Mexican officers on the look-out, and for it treachery in the camp of the desperadoes would doubtless have landed Sainz in jail either in San Diego or Santa Ana, had not Sainz been captured by mere chance before he reached the line.

Caught Asleep

According to a San Diego dispatch, Sainz was surprised by the rurales, who, in turn, were surprised when they arrived at Tia Juana to learn that in their raid on a band of Chinese smugglers, Sainz was the smuggler taken.

It is charged by the rurales that Sainz's camp several miles below Tecarte, contained six Chinese who were ready to cross the line under Sainz's direction. The desperado was caught asleep.

For a week past Sheriff Lacy has been in close touch with the movements of Sainz and Macias. It was known that Sainz had crossed the border and had gotten some of his old smuggling gang together. By threats he made a Mexican, concerning whose doings Sainz was familiar, give him money. Among other purchases made by Sainz was that of a roan horse.

Macias was at work on a ranch at Tecarte, and according to informants he was getting restless under the reckless leadership of Sainz. Sainz had planned to smuggle the Chinese through Capistrano, El Toro and Anaheim. This looked like sticking a head in a lion's mouth, and Macias preferred safety to risk, and he was about ready to give Sainz the slip when he was captured.

Early this week messages came here to the effect that Sainz and Macias were near Tecarte. Officers Tiello Cervantes and J. W. Murray made a secret trip to Tecarte, returning yesterday, in the hope that they would catch the pair. Arriving there, they could have laid hands on Macias, but since Sainz was the man most wanted they decided to let him go. Had they arrested Macias, all chances to get Sainz at this time would have been off.

Had to Return

The two officers returned here. Last night about 8 o'clock Sheriff Lacy received word from San Diego saying that Sainz had left Ensenada with a band of Chinese. Lines were laid in such manner that Sainz could not have landed his men in Los Angeles without capture or a hot fight.

Then it was that the Mexican rurales stumbled upon the Sainz camp and caught the desperado asleep. Immediately word was sent to Tecarte, and the rurales there seized Macias.

The rurales are out for the $100 reward, and it may be that Macias will be held by them without placing him in jail until they get their money.

The lieutenant-governor of Baja California informed Chief Wilson of San Diego that Sainz could be had at any time on the extradition papers issued for him before.

Officer Cervantes left for Tecarte this morning by automobile to look after Macias.

Highway Act

According to the information received by Chief Wilson a few days ago, Sainz has played the highwayman successfully since his escape into Mexico, threatening in every instance to kill his victims if they gave warning of his operations to the Mexican authorities.

Pedro Gonzales, a Mexican desperado well known to the American authorities, who is said to have been aiding Sainz in his operations in Mexico since the latter's escape from the Santa Ana jail, eluded the rurales and is still at large.

The San Diego chief learned that Macias still carries Sheriff Lacy's revolver and one of the rifles stolen from the jail here. Sainz was armed with the other stolen rifle.

It has been learned that in Sainz's camp is a horse stolen from a Jap at Smeltzer a few days after Sainz and Macias broke jail, said to be in the possession of a Mexican well known here, where he was raised.

THE MANTILLA.

A Spanish Woman Answers the Question, "Why Do You Wear It?"
The writer once asked of a well known lady of the Spanish aristocracy who was seated in the box of the president of a corrida in Madrid, "Why do you wear a mantilla?" and the fair duchess replied: "Because we all wear a mantilla at a bullfight or at any truly Spanish function. It is the proper thing to do, and we do it."

A little later as I strolled among a group of aficionados I ventured to ask a woman of the people over whose head and shoulders was also thrown a mantilla why all Spanish women, to whatever class they belonged, wore this national headgear, if it may be called thus.

This woman was sitting in the open air, and I was thinking that a large straw hat would have protected her better from the burning rays of the sun and been quite as picturesque. She replied in that droning, warm tone so typical of the Spanish: "Well, I happened to have often thought of this, and I think the reason why we all wear the mantilla is because we Spanish women are most careful about our hair. We think the chief charms of a woman are her eyes and her hair. And, as you may see, we all have splendid, thick, lustrous hair, and we are supposed to have, many of us, fascinating eyes. Now, why should we hide our elaborately arranged hair under a hat and conceal our eyes in the shade cast by the brim of a hat?"

No doubt this woman was right. Parisian elegance to the Spanish women of the upper classes may have its attractions, but they, as their less fortunate compatriots, all agree that beautiful hair and expressive eyes are more important. * * * And both of these may be cultivated.—London Mail.

THE FIRST WINDMILLS.

Could Work Only When the Wind Blew From a Certain Point.

Windmills are said to have been introduced into England by the Knights of St. John, who observed them in use among the Saracens in the Crusades, but how long they had been in existence before this it is not possible to ascertain. A water mill was built in Bohemia in the year 718, for an old chronicler mentions it, going on to say that "before that time all the mills in Bohemia were windmills set upon the summit of hills."

For hundreds of years windmills were among the most important adjuncts of industry, yet they hardly changed from the rude and primitive design of earliest days. They were fixed in one position, and so could only be worked when the wind blew from a certain quarter, while the four sails boasted no slats or checking apparatus of any kind, which must have been most inconvenient at times.

The first idea of arranging a mill so that it could be worked "where'er the wind did blow" was that of tethering an ordinary mill in the middle of a pond by means of ropes. When the wind shifted the ropes were loosed and the mill dragged around until the sails were caught by the wind, and it was then again tethered as before.

Later on a great pole, which was worked on the principle of a turntable, was affixed to the mill. Not until 1500 did Holland, the land of windmills, introduce a movable dome carrying the sail axle. The dome ran on rollers and was shifted around by means of the pole mentioned above. These ancient mills were often of massive build, being made of brick or stone, and later entirely of wood.—London Globe.

The Helmet That Fell.

Roquelaur, the deformed jester of Louis XIV., contrived to get out of many a scrape by his ready wit. One day he went to the king to ask his pardon for having struck off the helmet of one of his sentinels who had failed to give him the military salute. Louis, who knew his man, wondered that Roquelaur should crave his pardon for so venial an offense and said to him: "This is a serious matter, Roquelaur, but I will pardon you this time." It afterward turned out that the soldier's head was in the helmet and fell with it to the ground.—Argonaut.

The Astonishing Part.

Lord Townshend at the battle of Dettingen was standing quite near a drummer boy whose brains were dashed out by a cannon ball. His lordship gazed on the horrible spectacle for some moments in silence.

At last an old officer spoke up and said: "Why is your lordship surprised? Such things must happen in war." "I know it," was the reply, "but what astonishes me is that a boy with so much brains should be here at all."

A Bright Outlook.

"Do you—er—do you think, Miss Dobleigh, that you will be—er—engaged next Thursday evening?" asked Tompy very bashfully.

"Well, really, Mr. Tompy," replied Ethel, "I don't know, but if you can get up spunk enough between now and then to do your share I think there's a fair prospect that I shall be."

And Tompy did.—Harper's Weekly.

Where It Hurts.

"Say, I have an awful pain. I wonder if it is appendicitis? Can you tell me on what side one gets it?" "Why, on the inside, of course."—Columbia Jester.

Bad Selection.

"Goodness me, but that woman's makeup is loud." "It is that. She should have used noiseless powder."—Baltimore American.

Society*For Her Officers

Mrs. W. L. Tubbs was hostess Saturday afternoon for the officers and substitutes who have served with her during the past year in Hermosa Chapter, O.E.S. There were twenty-seven guests and the afternoon was spent socially. A dainty two-course luncheon was served by the hostess, with yellow and white chrysanthemums used in decorations.

One of the pretty features of the afternoon was the presentation by the officers, of a souvenir spoon to the tiny girl baby of Mrs. Earl Glenn, one of the faithful staff. Mrs. Grubb made the presentation in a clever original poem.

Postal cards were written by each one present to an absent officer, Mrs. Clevenger, who has been ill for two months. The pretty courtesy was prompted by Mrs. Tubbs.

With Mrs. Ray Steadman

The Young Ladies' Travel Club will meet on tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ray Steadman, 510 East Sixth street.

Farewell Surprise

Last evening Miss Bessie Lowry was tendered a pleasant surprise party by the members of the drill team of the Fraternal Brotherhood, of which the young lady has been a popular member for two years. The surprisers gathered at the Mitchell home on E street, there being about twenty in the company.

Miss Lowry will leave on Thursday next for a visit with friends and relatives in Memphis, Tenn., and the party of last night was a farewell. The laughable game of "It" was the first on the program, with "Ernie" Dresser as "It," and his endeavors to find out who was "It" kept the guests in an uproar. Another jolly game, "What is it and why is it?" kept everybody guessing.

Music was enjoyed, with Miss Pearl Lowry acting as accompanist for Miss Bessie Lowry, who rendered a few vocal selections. She is a talented young singer. After the music, came refreshments of ice cream. During this pleasant period, Captain Harvey made a nice little speech on behalf of the drill team, and presented Miss Lowry with a handsome comb and brush set. After an enjoyable half hour spent in conversation, the guests adjourned, all wishing Miss Lowry a pleasant trip and visit, also a safe return.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Harvey and children, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Slaback, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mitchell and daughter, Misses Bessie Lowry, Pearl Lowry, Nellie Buchly, Daisy Austin and Lena Judan; Messrs. George Fleishman, George Ketcher, Arthur Anderson, Tom Stotts, Ernest Dresser and Floyd Mitchell.

Monday Afternoon Club

Mrs. Asa Vandermast was hostess yesterday afternoon for the Monday Afternoon Club, her beautiful home being adorned with white chrysanthemums and crimson Rambler roses. Music, conversation and sewing kept the ladies entertained through the afternoon, and delicious refreshments were served in the dining room. A special guest was Mrs. Lyday, Mrs. Vandermast's sister, from Newton, Iowa, who is here to spend the winter.

Besides Mrs. Lyday, those present were Mesdames Walter Prince, Walter Vandermast, Chas. Carey, Herbert Mansor, F. C. Rowland, Russell Scott, Flora Williams, Newell, and Miss Newell.

Finch Club

The Finch Club was entertained last evening by Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Roper at their pleasant Orange avenue home. The 6:30 dinner with which this club precedes the amusement of the evening, was delightfully served and appointed, decorations of hibiscus and fern adorning the table. White and pink chrysanthemums were used in the remainder of the house. Finch was played through the evening, the following joining in the games: Messrs. and Mesdames Roper, L. J. Carden, J. W. Bishop, P. P. Nickey, W. E. Winslow, W. M. Smart, H. C. Dawes and C. H. Kendall.

Box Social

Tomorrow night the Torosa Rebekah lodge will entertain with a box social at Odd Fellows Hall. This will be purely a social affair and no admission will be charged. The ladies of the lodge are requested to take boxes of lunch with them and be prepared to make everyone happy.

THE PONY EXPRESS.*Fearless Riders and the Dangers and Hardships They Faced.

Perhaps the most picturesque figure on the old trail was the pony express rider. The overland stage proved too slow for mail and express in its flight from the Missouri and the Pacific. True, it had cut down the months of the old ox team to twenty-five days, and still there was a clamor that the east and west be brought closer together, and it was done. The pony cut the time to ten days.

Those who were personally acquainted with the famous pony express of those days could never forget the intrepid rider who braved all perils, forgetful of self, intent only on the speedy delivery of his precious mail to the next hardy horseman. Hard and fast he rode over mountain and plain, across scorching desert and icy snow, through sunshine and rain, past friend, away from foe, to the final achievement—the safe delivery of his charge.

Forty fearless horsemen in saddle riding west, as many more riding east—and this novel but useful enterprise was in motion. For two years the pony express carried messages of business and love across 2,000 miles of western mountains and plains, over a country peopled with a hostile race, destitute of cultivation or development, through a region wild, desolate and little known.

It was in 1859 that the pony express was established. The route, briefly stated, was due west from St. Joseph to Fort Kearney, up the Platte to Julesburg, thence, by Fort Laramie and Fort Bridger, to Salt Lake City, thence to Camp Floyd, Ruby valley, the Humboldt, Carson City, Placerville and Folsom, to Sacramento and San Francisco by boat.

The intention of the pony express was to carry letters only and not more than ten pounds at a trip. It was decided that the safest and easiest mode of carrying the mail was to make four pockets, one in each corner of the mochila, a covering made of heavy leather for the saddles and generally used by the expert Mexican and Spanish riders. The mochila was transferred from pony to pony and went through from St. Joseph to San Francisco, the pockets containing the mail being locked and opened only at military posts en route and at Salt Lake City. These precious letters were wrapped in oiled silk to protect them, but even this precaution sometimes failed. Rivers had to be crossed; horse and rider swam together.—W. C. Jenkins in National Magazine.

Grew Too Tall.

"I recall a case of genuine bone-headedness, mixed with enthusiasm, that cost a great many people a bunch of money," said an oil operator. "It was during the time when a big strike meant a drop in the price of oil. The foreman of a drill crew had been instructed by the employers to use a code in the event of oil being found. If it was a big flow he was to wire, 'Pine trees grow tall.' If, on the other hand, the flow was small, 'Pine trees grow small,' was to be the code message. The drill struck a gusher, and the following message was sent by the ivory topped individual: 'Pine trees grow tall as hell, and she is flowing all over the derrick!' Of course there were a number of men about the exchange who could understand telegraphy, and the consequence was that the price of oil dropped about $2 a barrel in a few minutes."—Louisville Times.

Intoxicated by Tobacco.

Giving evidence against a man on a charge of disorderly conduct at Bow street police court, a constable said that the accused behaved in a very violent and disorderly manner in Leicester square on Tuesday evening. He quarreled with a cabman, and eventually the witness took him into custody, believing him to be drunk. At the police station the prisoner denied that he had been drinking, and the doctor who examined him reported that he had chewed tobacco to such an extent that it had had the same effect upon him as alcohol.—Pall Mall Gazette.

Real Laziness.

The Little Russians—those of the south—are said to be cleverer than the Russians of the north, but they are lazy—just how lazy may be gathered from this quotation from Mr. Maurice Baring's book, "Russian Essays and Stories": "The Little Russian," said a Little Russian gentleman to me, "is so lazy that he will say to his wife, 'Little wife, say whoa to my horse. I have a pain in my tongue.'"

Progressive.

"When did you commit your first fatal extravagance?" "When my boss referred to my wages as my 'salary.'"

"And when did you perpetrate this latest folly?"

"The day my wife called my salary my 'income.'"

—Cleveland Leader.

Not Worth While.

"I notice that you usually tell the truth."

"Yes; I found that telling lies gets you into almost as much trouble."

—Kansas City Journal.

The Feminine Pessimist.

The feminine pessimist worries because she is not as young as she once was; the optimist of the same sex rejoices that she is not so old as she will be.—Life.

NOTICE

After being assured by part of our ministers, endorsed by their different local churches, that a demand exists for a public debate in Santa Ana, upon the Sabbath question, the Church of God has taken up the defense of the Sabbath, and denial of the first day of the week observation, as a Christian duty. It has been published that the leaders of the Advents "backed down." We will debate the question with Mr. Love as soon as we can secure the services of our elder, W. S. Crowe, of Chanute, Kansas, associate editor of the Present Truth. Address Lock Box 66, Santa Ana, Cal.

Home Methods in the Factory
—Every one knows what would happen if a housewife put down her fruit and jellies by simply pouring them from the kettle into the jars and allowing them to stand with loose covers. Her fruit would soon ferment and spoil. Cooking fats are just as liable to spoil, yet most manufacturers of lard and other cooking fats pack their products in tubs or loose-covered tins, exposed to air, dust and odors.

Cottolene, however, is packed in pails of special design, sealed absolutely airtight, so that the makers guarantee Cottolene to remain indefinitely as sweet and as fresh as the day it was made.

MACKEREL FISHING IS GOOD AT NEWPORT BEACH

Newport News: Mackerel fishing has been good lately for those who get out on the wharf at 6 o'clock in the morning, but those who tarry until later in the day seldom catch a worthy string. There has been some enormous rock cod around the end of the wharf, a Mexican catching one Sunday that weighed seven pounds. Yellowtail have been seen around in great numbers all week, but few have been caught, as it is getting rather late in the season for them. Some fine surf have been caught when the tides are favorable, but as a rule it does not pay to go after surf except when the tide is coming in strong about sundown.

SHADOW LEGENDS

Zulus Believe the Bodily Shade Is the Future Spirit.

TAKING AWAY ONE'S SHADOW.

Why Some Races Are Forbidden to Look Into a Dark Pool of Water. The Way Donald McKay Managed to Escape the Clutches of the Devil.

That mysterious counterpart of a human being which lengthens with the day and disappears with the sun, to reappear more faintly with the rising of the moon, which we call a shadow, has always struck the imagination of man. It has played a prominent part in primitive superstition and in later folklore. Shadows or shades was the classical name or figure for the spirits of the departed which still remains in use.

This idea is not confined to civilized races. Among the Zulus the spirit is the shade. Bishop Callaway, whose knowledge of Zulu beliefs and modes of thought was unrivaled, says that the Zulus connect the bodily shade with the future disembodied spirit. They believe that the shadow cast by the body will ultimately become the "itongo," or spirit, when the body dies, and they say that the long shadow shortens "as a man approaches his end and contracts into a very little thing. When they see the shadow of a man thus contracting, they know he will die. The long shadow goes away when a man is dead, and it is that which is meant when it is said, "The shadow has departed." There is, however, a short shadow which remains with the body and is buried with it. The long shadow becomes an ancestral spirit.

Identification of the shadow in any mysterious or spiritual way with the person whose body casts it, naturally leads to respect for the strange second self. To tread on the shadow of a chief is an insult to the chief himself. In the Institutes of Manu, the ancient Hindu law giver, the law runs:

"Let him not intentionally pass over the shadow of sacred images, of a natural or spiritual father, of a king, of a Brahmin who keeps house, or of any revered personage, nor of one who has just performed a sacrifice."

There are traces of the survival of these primitive ways of regarding a man's shadow in the English country feeling that it is unlucky to cross the path of a newly married man as he leaves the altar; and in another rural belief that it is unlucky to cross the path of horses ploughing when the sun is shining behind them.

Association between shadows and mirrored representations of the human form is obviously natural, so it is not surprising to find superstitions about the shadow mingled with widely scattered versions of the Narcissus legend. The story of the beautiful youth who became enamored of his own image, as he saw it represented in the water, and languished thereafter till he died, has its origin in the belief that trouble follows from beholding the watery image.

"Let him not look at his own image in water; that is a settled rule," commands Manu, the Hindu law giver. The Melanesians of the Pacific, says a learned observer, say: "There is a stream in Saddle island, or, rather, a pool in a stream, into which if any one looks he dies; the malignant spirit takes hold upon his life by means of his reflection in the water." Some such idea as this was probably the root of the Narcissus legend.

The Zulus explain why it is ill to look into the water of a pool by a story of a great beast in the water which can seize the shadow of a man and when his shadow is gone a man no longer wishes to turn back, but desires to enter the pool. He goes in, dies, and is eaten by the great beast which inhabits it. So, says Bishop Callaway, "men are forbidden to lean over and look into a dark pool, it being feared that their shadow should be taken away."

There are other ways in which a man may lose his shadow. There was a temple of Jupiter in Arcadia which, if entered by those who were forbidden to do so, robbed them of their shadows.

In the north of Scotland there are some quaint legends of folk who lost this usual attendant. In Sutherland they tell more than one story of a wizard named Donald-Duval McKay. Donald went to a school in Italy where the black art was taught by the devil, who sat in the professor's chair, and at the end of each term claimed as his own the last scholar to depart. Breaking up at this academy was naturally a scramble, none wishing to be last.

On one occasion Donald was really the last, but just as the devil was about to seize him, the resourceful Donald pointed to his own shadow, which fell behind him, saying, "Take thou the hindmost." Accordingly, his shadow was seized, while he himself escapes, and after his return to Scotland was never seen to have a shadow!

A companion illustration of "de'il tak the hindmost," from Aberdeenshire, is a story of a witch helped laird watching his reapers, whose shadow was seized by Satan, and who was ever after shadowless. In literature Chaucer's famous tale of "Peter Schlemihl" is a well known example of the stories of the shadowless.—New York American.

TRICKY ART DEALERS.

Artistic Parisian Scheme For Booming a "New Master."

For the booming of a new artist an astute dealer is necessary. He catches his artist as young as possible, preferably as an exhibitor of crazy canvases at the autumn salon of the Independents' exhibition, and commissions him to paint 100 pictures a year.

One by one, occasionally in twos and threes, at judicious intervals the dealer sends the pictures to the Hotel Drouot for sale by public auction. There he has confederates, who raise the price at each sale, and he buys them in himself.

After a few months the young artist's canvases have a certain market value, and the next step is taken to turn their painter into a modern master. The critics are attacked. One of them is asked to look at some daub, and when he cries out with horror the dealer says:

"What? You don't like it? Take it home with you as a favor to me, live with it six months and then!"

In due course an art amateur calls upon the critic and cannot contain his admiration for the new artist's picture.

"What a masterpiece! The most modern thing in art I have seen for a long time!" he exclaims.

Doubt begins to invade the critic's mind, and when one or two more enthusiastic amateurs have visited him he is worked up to writing a column of panegyric on the new master. The amateurs are, of course, sent by the dealer.

One or two articles and the boom is in full swing. Wealthy and simple minded collectors, remembering how other painters have been decried in their early days and how their works later have commanded fancy prices, rush in.

The new master makes about 10 per cent of the profit and the dealer the other 90 per cent. The new master is at the mercy of the dealer. If he grumbles the dealer floods the auction rooms with a hundred or so of his masterpieces and orders his agents not to bid, the result being that the canvases sell at rubbish prices, and the boom is burst.—Gil Blas.

LONDON THEATERS.

They Charge From a Penny to Sixpence For a Bill of the Play.

At the London theaters when the young woman shows you to a seat she asks if you wish a program. If you do you pay sixpence in the orchestra or dress circle for a program handsomely printed on fine paper. The price ranges down through "thrillpence" and "tuppence" as the galleries ascend to a penny in the cockpit. The quality of paper and the general artistic merit of the program decline with the price, but exactly the same information is conveyed for a penny as for sixpence. The fastidious theatergoer might prefer to pay a dime for a neat and simple program rather than to have a bulky bunch of advertisements gratis, as in New York, but these London programs, although not so thick as those of New York, are not devoid of advertisements. This gives the purchaser the feeling that he is being worked at both ends. A lady reminds me, however, that a program in a New York theater costs her 10 cents, as the smeary printing rubs off on her white gloves, the cleaning of which costs a dime.

The quality of the performance at the better London theaters certainly averages no higher than that at similar theaters in New York. The music halls are the resort of the great middle class. These are great auditoriums with tier on tier of galleries, the seating capacity ranging perhaps from 3,000 to 5,000.—London Letter in New York Sun.

The Roman Tribune.

The tribunes in ancient Rome represented the people in much the same way that the house of commons does in England and the house of representatives in this country. For a long time the patricians or aristocrats of Rome had everything their own way. But when the plebeians (or, as we would say, the "plain people") got their tribune the reckless tyranny of the patricians ceased. The tribune had great power. He could veto almost any act and nullify almost any law passed by the Romans. Liberty among the Romans dates from the time they first secured their tribunes.—New York American.

Friendship's Tribute.

Gladys—Did you see what the society column of the Daily Bread said about Nin Gillard the other morning? "She moves with ease and grace in our most exclusive circles." Maybelle—Yes, I read it. It's dead certain that the editor who wrote that had never seen her on roller skates.—Chicago Tribune.

Against His Convictions.

"Have some of this Welsh rabbit, Bjouson?" asked Bjones as he stirred the golden concoction in the chafing dish.

"No, thanks, Bjonesey," returned Bjouson, patting his stomach tenderly. "I am unalterably opposed to all corporation taxes."—Harper's Weekly.

Off Again.

"I met your husband in town. He was very much elated!"
"The villain! He told me he would never take another drop."—Houston Post.

He who would do a great thing well must first have done the simplest thing perfectly.—Cady.

LOS ANGELES PRODUCE MARKET

With the heavier arrivals of navel oranges during the last days of the past week, and still heavier average receipts yesterday morning the price on these dropped at once from fancy quotation of the first few days when the navels were just beginning to make their appearance. The new price on fruit is from $2.75 to $3 per box. This has had its effect on the Valencia market as well and lower figures are quoted on that variety. The best figure is $4 a box. Lemons are holding firm while there is a feeling of weakness in grape fruit, and there were fractional declines reported. The first tangerines are expected in a few days and several of the fancy varieties of oranges which are in good demand over the holidays, are also being awaited shortly.

There were no changes in the egg market. The demand for case count was very good and there was also a big call for Eastern storage eggs. There are no more eastern fresh arrivals in anything like large quantities. A few cases occasionally come in with a shipment of poultry, but the bulk shipments are long past. Receipts of eggs were 52 cases.

Butter arrivals were 13,180 pounds. There were no changes and no features in this commodity.

A number of fractional declines were reported in the cheese market. Eastern singles were down to 17½ cents. Oregon and eastern daisy are holding at the same figures, 18½ cents. Cheese arrivals were 453 lbs.

Potato features were found in the number of offerings of stock to arrive here in December. Oregon Burbanks, Colorado Russets and one or two other varieties were offered at prices ranging from $1.50 to $2 per hundred. The demand for Highlands was good and Salinas also sold well. Receipts for the day were 4339 sacks.

Arrivals of onions were 320 sacks. Australian Brown sold in a jobbing way at $1.40, an indication of a rapidly strengthening market. A few further declines of beans were reported. The market on this commodity is very unsteady with the harvest going on in the north and a great deal of local stock changing hands, from grower to broker and dealer.

Arrivals of sweets were 11 sacks. The market on them went to $1.74. Other vegetables were firm and a few advanced slightly.

A good demand for Utah Jonathans was one of the phases of the apple situation. Other good sellers were Bellefleurs, Smith ciders and Ben Davis, the last mentioned selling as low as 75 cents a box.

Prices on grapes advanced very perceptibly. The best Muscats and Tokays were held at $1.50 per lug box. Other black varieties were up proportionately. Bartlett pears were boosted to $3 per box.

Arrivals of fish were light. Barracuda and yellowtail were the big fish obtainable. The smaller fish were smelt and sand dabs.

TO INTERVIEW THE PACIFIC ELECTRIC

Jackman and Grubb Commissioned to See What Railway Will Do

BIDS RECEIVED FOR FURNACES

Petition Asks That Shelton Street be Extended to Fairview Avenue

S. J. Jackman and W. L. Grubb of North Main street were last night appointed as a committee by the City Trustees to interview the Pacific Electric in regard to the paving of the railroad's right-of-way and in regard to moving the P. E. tracks north of the bridge from the east side to the center of the street.

Jackman stated that there is need of some way to let the flood waters
pass south on Main street from above the S. P. tracks. He said that since the city's teams are too busy to put the street to grade, the property owners should be credited to that amount.

Chairman McFadden said he had the promise of the S. P. to put in its curbs and pavement. He said the P.
E. has two franchises on North Main,
and he did not know what could be done about compelling the P. E. to take quick action. However, the trustees are willing to stand back of the committee sent to Los Angeles.

City Attorney Heathman said he did not think the city could make the P. E. move its tracks, but it could cite the road to show cause why it's franchise should not be revoked should it fail to pave.

advisement. The descriptions are intricate, and bids were on hot air and steam heats. S. Hill & Son bid $290 and $994; Cass Murr & Co., $650; F.
P. Nickey, $1025 and $885. A committee will investigate the methods.

The petition of A. J. Visel for paving East Sixth from Spurgeon to French with petrolelithic pavement was granted.

Mr. Teel and others petitioned the board to extend Shelton street from West First to Fairview avenue, with a sixty-foot road. Mr. Teel stated that Mr. Matthews was opposed to giving a right-of-way. Otherwise the right-of-way could be had. The matter was referred back to the petitioners to get deeds for rights-of-way.

A communication was received from Laurel Encampment thanking the trustees for their aid during the encampment.

The petition to pave French between Third and Fourth with petro-lithic was granted.

M. D. Halladay stated that sidewalks are finished on Chestnut on both sides of the Halladay street intersection, and that there is a quantity of dirt that needs hauling away at the crossing. The street superintendent was instructed to put the walk to grade.

INDIGESTION GOES

Rowley Drug Co. Sells Best
Prescription on the Money Back Plan

—Almost everybody knows that sick headache, nervousness and dizziness, are caused by a disordered stomach.

Upset stomach and indigestion happen just because the food you eat does not digest—but lies in the stomach and ferments or turns sour.

You can stop fermentation and stomach distress in five minutes by using MI-O-NA stomach tablets, a prescription that has done more to cure indigestion and put the stomach in fine condition than all the specialists on earth.

A large 50-cent box of MI-O-NA stomach tablets is all you need to get quick and lasting relief. Rowley Drug Co. guarantees them.

Mrs. Altie Etson, of 93 Dun Road, Battle Creek, Mich., used MI-O-NA
and within two months was in as good health as ever, and has a good strong stomach, and eats anything she likes.
She attributes her good health to MI-O-NA.

If you have heartburn, belching of gas, heaviness or any stomach trouble no matter how chronic, try MI-O-NA stomach tablets on money back plan. Sold by the Rowley Drug Co.,
and leading druggists everywhere.

THIRTY-FIVE IN SEASON

Robinson Delivers Count of Bucks Killed to Los Angeles Office

Deputy State Fish Commissioner
W. K. Robinson of Trabuco yesterday went to Los Angeles to report to the headquarters there the number of bucks killed in this section during the season recently closed. Robinson's report shows thirty-five bucks killed in the district between San Mateo in San Diego county and the Santa Ana river in this county.

Robinson reported that he had received information indicating that at least two does were killed. The head and entrails of a doe were found in the Holy Jim canyon, and a dead doe was found in the Silverado canyon, where a hunter had abandoned the carcass, probably on discovering his mistake.

Robinson stated that the number of does in this section are on the increase, but that the season has been too destructive of the bucks. The bucks killed during the latter part of the season were generally large.
Sportsmen say that the season should be cut shorter in this section for the protection of the large bucks, which in the fall come down out of the thick brush for mating.

VOTE HERE IS RATHER LIGHT

Heavier Polling Reported from Outside Precincts Where Contests Hot

The reports from the city precincts show that the Santa Ana vote is going to be light. From the country, where there is much interest in supervisory fights, the vote is heavier.
The vote here is light in comparison with the primaries vote. By 3 o'clock the primaries found a large share of the vote in. At precinct No.
1 at 3 o'clock, 91 votes had been cast out of a registration of 167.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC RAILWAY IS NOW USING TELEPHONES FOR DISPATCHING TRAINS

Supplanting the telegraph, which was considered the standard for handling train movements for a great many years, the Southern Pacific has joined the ranks of railroads now using the telephone for dispatching trains. Telephonic apparatus is now in operation over the Shasta division, with a total of 291 miles of circuits.
Copper wire of extreme weight and especially drawn for service in a mountainous region is being used.

The telephone circuit during sixteen hours out of twenty-four is cut into two sections, and during the third "trick" the entire circuit is operated by one dispatcher. This circuit covers a 206 mile section of the main line between Ashland, Oregon, and Red Bluff, California, and a branch of 95 miles from Weed, California, to Klamath Falls, Oregon. The dispatcher is located at Dunsmuir, California, which is 98 miles from Red Bluff, the southern terminal of this circuit. There are twenty-five stations of the entire circuit, twelve being located between Dunsmuir and Red Bluff, nine between Dunsmuir and Ashland and four between Weed and Klamath Falls.

The apparatus for this dispatching system has been furnished by the Western Electric Company, which has made more than 90 per cent. of the

CHANTECLER'S CROWS WERE WORTH $642,000

PARIS, Nov. 8.—At last, after several extensions of its run "Chante-cler" gave its final "cockadoodledoo"
on the stage of the Martin last week.

The total box office receipts produced by the play at 752 performances, both in Paris and the French provinces, is $642,000.

—The voters are asked to read with consideration the article on page 4, regarding Mr. Seymour's candidacy for Justice of the Peace.

A QUEER UNIVERSITY.

Cairo Has the World's Oldest Educational Institution.

"When we think of Harvard or Yale, the former dating from 1638 and the latter from 1701, we think of them as old universities," says a writer in the American Educational Review; "but when we pass to the other side of the world we discover that even the oldest American universities are in reality
very young institutions."

"The oldest educational institution in the world is the University of El Ashar, Cairo, founded in the year 988 by the great Saladin. It is the central seat of learning for the whole Mohammedan world, as well as a fountain of spiritual life. It occupies an ancient mosque in the Arab quarter of Cairo, surrounded by a confusing maze of narrow streets where the population is made up of representatives of every race that follows the prophet."

"The old mosque covers several acres and consists of a series of courts surrounded by long cloisters with low roofs supported by forests of columns.
The floors of red tiles are covered daily
by a multitude of men and boys, squatting in semicircles around their teachers, who sit with their backs to the columns lecturing in monotonous tones."

"The chancellor of the university is always a descendant of the prophet and is usually a man of ability and learning. He occupies apartments in El Ashar and is not only the supreme educational but the ecclesiastical head of the church of Egypt."

"There is no organization similar to that in modern universities. Any reputable man who desires to teach can obtain the privilege by application and is assigned a column where he may sit and impart the truth as he thinks proper. His fame or ability will attract more or less students and disciples, who pay him fees according to their means."

THE SCOLD'S BRIDLE.

Brutal Punishment to Which Women Were Once Subjected.

The brank, or scold's bridle, or gos-sip's muzzle, was neither more nor less than a muzzle. It was in general use in Great Britain from the sixteenth to the eighteenth century, and in Scotland as well women were muzzled for certain offenses, some at least of them more imaginary than real. The instrument of torture, even a dog's leather muzzle, is uncomfortable. How much more the scold's muzzle! It consisted,
according to a high authority, Mr. W.
Jewitt, of a kind of crown or framework of iron, which was locked upon the head, and it was armed in front with a gag, a plate or a sharp cutting knife or point, which was placed in the poor woman's mouth so as to prevent her moving her tongue, or it was so placed that if she did move it or attempt to speak it was cut in a most frightful manner. With this cage upon her head and with the gag firmly pressed and locked against her tongue
the miserable creature, whose sole offending perhaps was that she raised her voice in defense of her social rights against a brutal and besotted husband or had spoken honest truth of some one high in office in her town, was paraded through the streets, led by a chain by the hand of a bellman,
the beadle or the constable or chained to the pillory, the whipping post or market cross, to be subjected to every conceivable insult and degradation.
Without even the power left her of asking for mercy or of promising amendment for the future, and when the punishment was over she was turned out from the town hall or the place where the brutal punishment
had been inflicted, maimed, disfigured, bleeding, faint and degraded, to be the subject of comment and jeering among her neighbors.—London Family Herald.

Colors of the Stars.

Although there is no relation apparent between the two phenomena, yet it is interesting to recall the fact that among the stars certain colors appear to characterize different stages of change, or evolution. Red stars, according to the testimony of the spectroscope, differ widely in their constitution from white or yellow ones, and it has been thought that varying colors may give a clue to progressive changes in the heavenly bodies. Sirius,
for instance, is said to have changed
from red to white, and some have suspected that Arcturus is fading from red toward yellow.

A Fairly Good Appetite.

Kaffirs, North American Indians and the fat boy in "Dickwick" may well be quoted as fearful examples of vor-acity, but even their gastronomic feats are exceeded by the full grown Eskimo, who will daily eat twenty pounds of flesh and oil if he has the chance, while on the authority of Admiral Saricheff a Yakut of Siberia has been known to consume in twenty-four hours "the hind quarter of a large ox, twenty pounds of fat and a quantity of melted butter for his drink."

To Be Avoided.

"There's Wilson! Let us turn back.
I've no desire to meet that fellow again! Last week I asked him to lend me five pounds."

"Well, he certainly might have done so; he has plenty of money."
"Yes, I know—and he did lend me
the five!"—London Mail.

A Strategist.

"That fellow is a greater strategist than Napoleon ever was."

"As to how?"
"He got a two dollar raise of salary
a year ago and hasn't told his wife
about it yet."—Pittsburg Post.

THIS MAN'S SUCCESS PROVES THAT MONEY GROWS ON TREES

Starting With $1 Cash Capital
In 1906 He Now Owns a $35,000 Ranch

Proof that money grows on trees in California is furnished by the remarkable success of F.
E. Martin, who has just closed a deal to purchase, for $35,000, the orange orchard of Captain Brady of Pomona.

Martin came here four years ago with a cash capital of $1.
This dollar and a friend's assistance enabled him to buy a $10, 000 ranch which he sold within two years for $16,000, thus clearing $6000 on his $1 investment.

With this $6000 profit he purchased a second ranch, which a year later he sold at a second profit of $6000, making $12,000 clear money within four years' residence in California.

From the possession of $1 in 1906 to the ownership of a $35,- 000 ranch in 1910 is considered ample proof that money does grow on trees in the fertile Southland.

DANDRUFF AND ITCHING SCALP YIELD TO THIS TREATMENT

—Why experiment trying to drive
the dandruff germ from underneath
the skin with greasy lotions or fancy
hair-dressing when Dean's Drug Store
